"We... are asked to take a very great deal on trust: the teachings, for example, and the miracles of Jesus. If we had to take all on trust, I, for one, should be skeptical. The crux of the problem of whether Jesus was or was not what he proclaimed himself to be, must surely depend on the truth or otherwise of the resurrection. On that greatest point we are not merely asked to have faith. In its favour as a living truth there exists such overwhelming evidence, positive and negative, factual and circumstantial, that no intelligent jury in the world could fail to bring in the verdict that the resurrection story is true".

Charles John (Lord) Darling, High Court Judge

"If Jesus rose from the dead, then you have to accept all that he said; if he didn't rise from the dead, then why worry about any of what he said? The issue on which everything hangs is not whether or not you like his teaching but whether or not he rose from the dead."

— Timothy J. Keller, The Reason for God: Belief in an Age of Skepticism

"I know the resurrection is a fact, and Watergate proved it to me. How? Because 12 men testified they had seen Jesus raised from the dead, then they proclaimed that truth for 40 years, never once denying it. Everyone was beaten, tortured, stoned and put in prison. They would not have endured that if it weren't true. Watergate embroiled 12 of the most powerful men in the world—and they couldn't keep a lie for three weeks. You're telling me 12 apostles could keep a lie for 40 years? Absolutely impossible."

Charles Colson

Jesus Christ did not come into this world to make bad people good; He came into this world to make dead people live.

Courage Conference, 30th May – 2nd June

We live in a broken and hurting world, a world characterised by a climate of fear. The Church is called to serve that broken world, but in such a climate God's people can also become fearful and try to hide in the shadows. In May 2018, we are calling on our family to gather, to join hands across the generations and explore what it means to be courageous as a family and as individuals. To stand up and step out to face the challenge our broken world has laid before us.

Who is the Conference for?

If you are in (or aspiring to) a leadership role within your local church or workplace then this conference is for you! Example of these roles could be... elders, those leading church plants, small group leaders, children's and youth work leaders, ministry leaders, community champions, workplace managers, directors and entrepreneurs.

If you are a student or are in your 20s then this event is for you too, as SENT will have their own programme running alongside the main conference programme, there will be plenty of opportunities to join together, particularly in the evening sessions, some seminars and socially across the period of the event.
