OCTOBER 2018

Preaching series in October:

TITUS – The extraordinary power of ordinary Christianity

Preacher: Rob Tervet

Titus is a book all about making a difference in every season of life through ordinary Christian living. The world is looking for solutions to so many problems. The book of Titus presents in simple clarity the power of Christian living. It's a beautiful and crisp summary of the main ingredients of living for Jesus. I've heard it said that to be truly radical isn't to say 'out with the old and in with new'. It's to say 'out with old and in with the even older'. To be truly revolutionary is to go back to the Bible and believe every promised and obey every command.

'Keep in step' (Galatians 5)

Preacher: Matt Rushby

Having looked at what it is to be faithful to the faithful God, we'll continue to look at the fruits of the Spirit by asking what it means to grow supernatural kindness and goodness.

Our friends at Kings Community Church Norwich are running a Marriage Course and they've opened up the invitation to other churches. The Marriage Course is simply brilliant; it's 7 really practical sessions where you are seated at your own table for two. Every session will include: food, a practical talk and a time for private discussion between you and your partner. You never share anything about your relationship with anyone other than your partner.

Starting: Tuesday, October 16, 2018, 7:15 PM - 9:30 PM, King's Church. Book here:
